Re Atlanta teletype to the Bureau dated 1/30/84 and Buairtel to Atlanta dated 3/22/85.

Investigation has shown that much of the informant information reflected in reteletype was exaggeration, especially regarding the opening of 56 bookstores in Texas. Likewise, the direct involvement of the LCN in controlling the porno stores in Atlanta was never corroborated. To the contrary, information was developed that [redacted] was known to exaggerate when talking about his contacts in the business and he was known to be a heavy user of cocaine during the latter phase of his bookstore operation in Atlanta.

It is noted that Fulton County, GA, (Atlanta) authorities succeeded in closing the 4 or 5 stores [redacted] had opened in Atlanta by making purchases of materials at each store, convicting the clerk and the corporation of obscenity violations and seeking heavy fines from the court. Inasmuch as the fines were not paid, the authorities then levied against the property of the corporation, including the physical plant of each bookstore, and thus literally put the stores out of business.
